

How Serious is Your Rabbit Enterprise?

GROWTEC Rabbits have used various methods to record the many activities required in the day to day operation of our 100 Doe breeding enterprise. We were unable to find a technique suitable so we produced Rabbit Central. It needed to be many things to fulfill our needs, and we can not imagine our enterprise without it. Not only is day to day management a breeze but you can examine data to assess your performance thus improving productivity. This brochure contains some examples of it's worth when utilized in a rabbit breeding program. The Rabbit industry is a young one so GROWTEC Rabbits are continuously searching for new equipment and technology to assist us achieve our goals.
